- 2) Before commencement of the different Competitions efforts will be to rope in mobile Coaches for each discipline at each district headquarters. The function of the mobile Coaches is to impart training to youth at every District and Sub-Divisional headquarters in disciplines pertaining and popularly played at each District and Sub-Division before commencement of the Tournaments. The engagement of Coaches may be done on contractual basis from qualified Coaches or Veteran sports persons or renowned sports persons from each discipline who are able to constructively contribute to the need and requirement of the participant/Competitors. The scheduled of the proposed Training Camps be given wide publicity well in advance. Initially 7 football coaches and 2 for each of the other disciplines would be engaged.
- 3) Popular Indigenous Sports may also be identified for show casing during the celebration.
- 4) The Directorate will liaison with Meghalaya State Olympic Association, Nehru Yuva Kendra, Sports Associations to chalk out the scheduled programmes of the above Competitions. Attempts should also be made to review defunct defend Sports Associations at the District and Subdivisional level.
- 5) “Talent Search” will be the objective of the competitions to be conducted and conferring scholarship award be thought of to poor students who are promising sports persons to accommodate and sustain their academic career in comparatively well equipped schools at the District and State Level to enable them to augment and enhance their skills.
- 6) The Draft Sports Policy and Youth Policy to be publicised immediately inviting suggestions from all concerned so that the final policy can be launched within March 2012.
- 7) Budget proposals be worked out and recasted accordingly for the 12th Five Year Plan and Annual Plan 2012-2013.

- 8) The 5th Ground at J.N.Complex to be developed for other non sporting events which cannot be held at J.N.Stadium Complex.
- 9) Artificial Turf at Jowai and Tura as additional infrastructure in other district will be taken up within this financial year.
- 10) Sports Department to undertake an audit of Sporting infrastructures constructed over the year, within a span of 3 months. Details thereof to be placed before the Departments. Such infrastructure which is almost completed should be operationalised within a fixed time frame.
- 11) Proposals pending with GOI for State Headquarters/Districts may be pursued vigorously.

LABOUR DEPARTMENT AND EDUCATION DEPARTMENT

- 12) To undertake and conduct the youth resource mapping and profile data of youth from Block Level, Sub-Divisional Level, District Level on age, experience, qualification, skill etc. who are unemployed and seeking for job.
- 13) To obtain and create datas of all employment opportunities available from all Departments, PSUs, Defence (Army, Airforce), Institutions. This may be put on the Website. An "Employment Mela" may also be organized for this purpose.
- 14) To identify a "Task Force" which may include Social Workers, NGOs, NEHU Personnel, Defence Personnel etc who will be entrusted with the above 2 tasks and linkages of the two to identify the potentiality and employability of the youth having readymade datas and offer youth with avenues of choices for employment according to their capabilities and to disseminate information to Sub-Division and Block Level. Counseling may be done for a cluster of schools. SDO's (Civil) may be directly involved in this effort.
- 15) Sub Divisional Officer (Civil), Resubelpara has undertaken a pilot project on the above tasks and the same can be replicated and upgraded by the Task Force team.
- 16) To conduct Entrepreneurship Workshop, skill development etc.
- 17) Education Department to organize debates and other competition, at District and State Level, which will be Interschool, Intercollege etc.
- 18) Special Trophies may be considered.

TOURISM DEPARTMENT

- 19) The approach will be on three fronts viz;
 - i) To create tourist infrastructure that will amplify job and employment opportunities to youth and also create a rural tourism circuit to attract visitors and tourists.
 - ii) Skill development of the youth on Craftsmanship, Masonary, Hospitality to tourists, Tourist Guides, Chefs etc. wherein they can sustain themselves by self employment.
 - iii) To organize Adventure Sports, Aero Sports, Boat racing, Camps etc.
- 20) Organisation of the various programs will be both at the District level and Sub Divisional Level. Department to work out accordingly, taking into consideration the special activity appropriate for each District.

EDUCATION DEPARTMENT

- 21) To structure Holiday Programmes for the youth and students so that during the vacation period opportunity is provided to preoccupy themselves constructively with the objective to facilitate skill acquisition in different fields of music, arts, games, adventures etc. This can be done through capsule courses.
- 22) To frame Coaching and Training Camps to enable youth to actively engage themselves for their own growth and development and subsequently to contribute meaningfully to state development.
- 23) The above programmes will be finalized and information disseminated during the launch of the Year of the Youth. District / Subdivisional level functions may be held for organizing and implementing different programmes. D.C's may be requested to constitute Committee etc for this purpose.

ART AND CULTURE DEPARTMENT

- 24) Construction of the 3 Amphitheatres at Jowai, Shillong and Tura to be completed in time to enable programmes and activities to be held on regular basis and offer opportunities to local artists to perform individually or as a band in the field of music, art, drama etc. on nondays/ weekends for sustainability and upgradation of their talent and skill.
- 25) The Department will get empanelled list of professional artist who will be offered an opportunity to showcase their talents and provide entertainment to peers and public. Performance may be incentivised.
- 26) The aim of the Department is to fine tune the performance of different artist performing different cultural items of the State so that they become professional and to sustain the artists the Govt. shall explore the possibility of setting up professional institution wherein professional instructors are recruited to train such artist on a sustainable basis.

- 27) Conduct befitting cultural competitions at District and State Level, Inter School, Colleges and Universities.
